(suggested answer)

Lien is my close friend. Her hobby is doing the gardening. She started this hobby when she was 11 years old. Her younger brother loves gardening, too. They spend a lot of free time doing it. After school, she often plants trees, vegetables and flowers in her garden. She also gets up very early to water them every morning. She finds this hobby fun and useful. She really enjoys seeing flowers blooming and plants growing. She says she will definitely continue this hobby because doing the gardening can both help her relax and keep her healthy.
